

Managing Allegations against Staff and Volunteers

Background information

This half day training session will enable practitioners to reflect on current practice and responsibilities and to perform more confidently in their role in recognising and reporting allegations of abuse against staff and volunteers who work in the children's workforce. It will provide an opportunity to understand the legal and procedural requirements in this important area of safeguarding children and young people.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course participants will be able to:

- Learn how to develop a culture of safe working practice within the work environment and minimise the risk of allegations being made.
- recognise and respond as a professional to indicators of abuse
- understand the process of a referral in respect of allegations against staff and volunteers
- understand and be sure of their responsibilities
